FRESNO PACIFIC HOUSING POLICY

All students are required to live in campus housing unless they qualify for at least one of the following exemptions: (1) living at home with their parent(s) or parental age relative; (2) 21 years of age or older before the first day of class or within the "grace period" of the first two weeks of each semester; (3) married or getting married before the start of the semester; (4) are a parent and primary care giver for their child; (5) carrying fewer than 9 units; or are (6) accepted to live in an authorized residential ministry programs (per FPU Student Handbook).

Students receiving FPU institutional aid equal to 80% or more of the current cost of tuition are required to live on campus. Exemptions 1, 2 and 6 listed above are not applicable to the 80% policy. Faculty/staff tuition waivers from FPU's employee benefit program will not be counted against this 80%.

Students under 21 must demonstrate compliance with the housing policy every year before the first day of class by completing and submitting a Commuter Approval Form. Students who fail to do so will be charged the applicable room and board rate (applied to their student account) until they come into compliance with the housing policy by moving on campus, qualifying for an exemption listed below or successfully petitioning to live off campus.

EXEMPTIONS

- I will be at least 21 years old on or BEFORE the first day of class or within the "grace period" (first two weeks of each semester).
- I have been selected to live in an off-campus FPU approved residential ministry opportunity.
- I am married or getting married before the start of the semester.
- I am the primary care giver for my child.
- I am a part-time student taking less than 9 units.

Request for an extraordinary exemption

I do not qualify for any of the previous exemptions but I would like the Housing Petitions Committee to review my case as an out-of-the-ordinary exemption. I have attached a personal letter to this form that provides the details of my request for a special exemption based on my out-of-the-ordinary circumstance. Please note that approval for an extraordinary exemption is uncommon. Requests must be turned in to the Residence Life Office in the Student Life Division at least four weeks before the first day of class for the upcoming semester. The Housing Petitions Committee will review your case within two weeks of receiving your request. (Financial difficulty does not qualify for an out of the ordinary exemption from the housing policy.)

By signing below I verify that (1) I have read and understand the requirements of Fresno Pacific's Housing Policy; (2) all information provided on this form is true and correct; (3) I agree that if any information provided on this form changes, I will submit a new Commuter Approval Form within two weeks of the change; (4) I agree that I will comply with Fresno Pacific's Housing Policy.
